

Lacordaire Academy
Language Arts Summer Reading September 2017

Name:

Find and write out a direct quote from the book that shows the protagonist's most dominant personality trait in action. Include the author's LAST name and the page number of the quote (Name #).

Explain in 3-4 sentences how this reveals an important personality trait and why it is significant.

Find and write out a direct quote from the book that shows a key interaction between the protagonist and another significant character. Include the author's LAST name and the page number of the quote (Name #).

In 3-5 sentences explain what this interaction reveals about their relationship. Include specific ideas and examples.

Explain in 4-6 sentences how the main character grows, changes, or what he/she has learned during the course of the novel. If he or she does not change, explain what prevents change from taking place. Include specific details from the text.

What connections can you make between this reading selection and the subject of the class for which it was assigned?

What connections can you make between this reading selection and events taking place in the world today?

What connections can you make between this reading selection and yourself?